

DONATION

Thank you for considering a donation to World Scleroderma Foundation. Contributions by generous private donors are a key element to enable and maintain the activities of the World Scleroderma Foundation info@worldsclerofound.org and to further its mission to initiate and support patient oriented research and teaching in systemic sclerosis.

The World Scleroderma Foundation is a tax-exempt charitable foundation located in Basel, Switzerland. The tax authorities in Switzerland consider donations to the World Scleroderma Foundation as deductible for income tax purposes if your donations reach a certain minimum amount (usually CHF 100) and do not exceed a certain percentage (usually 20%) of your overall income. The World Scleroderma Foundation has not reviewed the tax situation in other countries does not know how tax authorities in other countries will categorize donations to the World Scleroderma Foundation.

Please indicate the approximate amount of the donation you are considering. Should your actual donation deviate substantially from your indication, the World Scleroderma Foundation has the right to get back to you and ask about the reasons for the change.
